

MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS

Achievements and Prospects Post-2015

4 lectures by leading Edinburgh academics for undergraduates, exploring the achievements of the United Nations Millennium Development Goals and where the agenda is heading post-2015 :
Health & Infectious Disease, Development and Business

5 November 2013 : Addressing the MDGs: Eliminating neglected tropical diseases

- Prof Sue Welburn, Global Health Academy
- 1 pm seminar room 2 Chrystal MacMillan Building, George Square

12 November 2013 : The post-MDG Agenda and NTD Research and Control

- Prof James Smith, Centre for African Studies
- 5.30 pm Playfair Library, Old College

19 November 2013 : Healthy Governance: Death, Disease and Donors

- Dr Devi Sridhar, School of Social and Political Science
- 1 pm seminar room 2, Chrystal MacMillan Building, George Square

26 November 2013 : Role of Sustainable Business in Delivering the MDGs

- Dr Kenneth Amaeshi, Edinburgh Business School
- 1 pm seminar room 2, Chrystal MacMillan Building, George Square

Lectures on 5, 19 and 26 November will be preceded by a sandwich lunch at 12.30 pm in foyer of the Chrystal MacMillan Building. The evening lecture on 12 November will be followed by a drinks reception in the Playfair Library, Old College.

ALL WELCOME!

More information <http://www.eid.ed.ac.uk/mdg-lectures>