Invitation to a Photo-Voice Exhibition

You are warmly invited to an exhibition of photographs that showcases the lived realities of asylum seekers and refugees in Scotland who also live with HIV. Using participatory action research, Dr Dina Sidhva, Associate of the Global Health Academy and Honorary Fellow of Centre for South Asian Studies, University of Edinburgh has drawn upon the visual medium to give voice to the poignant stories of forced migrants in Scotland against the backdrop of the UK's policies on supporting asylum seekers and refugees.

Hosted by Jim Eadie MSP, the exhibition will be formally opened by Mr Humza Yousaf MSP, Minister of Europe and International Development, Scottish Government. Other speakers include Dr Dina Sidhva and Prof Charlie Jeffery, Senior Vice Principal, The University of Edinburgh.

Venue: Garden Lobby, the Scottish Parliament

Date and time: Wednesday 23 March 2016 from 6.00 – 8.00pm (Registration and refreshments from 5.30pm onwards)

(This event will be photographed and media reps may be present)

Places are free but need to be booked in advance, no later than 18 March 2016.
