HEALTH PARTNERSHIPS & BUSINESS: OPPORTUNITIES FOR COLLABORATION TO IMPROVE GLOBAL HEALTH

As part of our 25th anniversary celebrations and in collaboration with University of Edinburgh Business School, the Global Health Academy, and Johnson & Johnson, THET are holding a special event to explore ways in which health partnerships and the business community can work together to improve global health.

Tuesday 9 December 2014

University of Edinburgh Business School, 29 Buccleuch Pl, Edinburgh, Lothian. EH8 9JS

Join us for this special event that will explore how health partnerships can collaborate with the business community in the UK, and the NHS, to improve healthcare in the UK and abroad.

This event is free, but you must register in order to attend. Visit our events page to book your place: http://bit.ly/101VqoH
